Hosting Fellowship

If you and your family would like to be a host for fellowship the last Sunday of the month, will you please let Beverly know (secretary-st joseph@socket.net). You will need to get donuts picked up, coffee & juice made before Mass and clean up after fellowship. If you have more questions, contact Beverly.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

As we come up on our Winter season, please exercise prudent judgment whenever we have poor weather conditions. We will still have Mass at St. Mary Church even if school is called off due to weather. Depending upon the weather and road conditions, Mass may be called off at St. Joseph – but every effort will be made to have Mass, especially on Sunday morning. We would rather you be safe and exercise caution in treacherous conditions than risk your safety. As a general principle, “if it’s too treacherous to go to Mass that day, it’s too treacherous to venture out anywhere for that day.”

Please keep our Seminarians in your prayers. Christopher Hoffmann, Philip Novotony, Garren Gray, Jacob Hartman, Shane Kleithermes, Gage Neisen, Bryce Smith, John Paul McGuire.

BAPTISMAL DEATH AND RESURRECTION

As we celebrate the Baptism of the Lord, we also honor our own baptism as our initiation into the Christian life and community. In the Gospel, the baptism of Jesus, with his immersion and then emergence from the water, points to his later submission to God at his death, and his emergence from the grave at his resurrection. This pattern of death and resurrection is our path too, as followers of Jesus. Throughout life, often in small ways, we learn to surrender our limited and self-centered agendas. This surrender often feels like death. The sacrament of Baptism ritually enacts this pattern to remind us of Jesus’ death and resurrection, so that we too might embrace the deaths and resurrections of our own lives. As Jesus emerged from the water, he encountered his Father and the Holy Spirit. Like Jesus, we can know we are God’s beloved, empowered by the Spirit.
