STEWARDSHIP AND LEISURE TIME – A REFLECTION

Maybe we are not in a position to take too much time off, but all of us can resonate with the need to really “get away” from work or the daily grind or the constant demands of social media. Even the Gospels suggest that good stewardship of our bodies, minds and souls obliges us to get away on a regular basis (see Luke 5:16).

As Christian stewards, we aren’t just encouraged, but obligated to consider how we approach our stewardship of leisure time. Stewards are aware of their need to be busy doing God’s work, but often forget that down time is equally important to spiritual growth. Leisure time, whether it’s our evenings, our weekends, or our vacation, provides spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional recharging. Leisure is necessary for human wholeness. Leisure reconnects us to the wider mysteries of our world and our God. It helps us daydream, imagine, pray. It refreshes our spirit.

Today, connectivity has become almost an obsession. People check their emails, their messages, and calls with alarming repetitiveness. Accidents, both pedestrian and automobile, happen because people can’t put down their phones. Employers expect their workers to be available for evening emails. The lines between work and free time increasingly blur, as do the lines between solitude and always being present “online.” We can’t imagine putting aside screens for a two-week vacation. But we must give ourselves time to renew and recharge, not just two weeks of the year, but each day and each week.

July offers an opportunity to reconnect with the rhythms of God and nature. We need to take time off from screens and phones, and practice giving undivided attention to the things before us. When we pray, we commit time and silence. When we enjoy time with our friends and family, we practice being totally present. When we sit on the patio or at the beach, we give ourselves wholly to the wind or the waves. Be a good steward of your body, mind and soul. Don’t overschedule your time off. Listen to the quiet whisper of God encouraging you to relax.

PRAYER FOR A GOOD VACATION

Heavenly Father, when your work of creation was complete, you rested. Lord, during my vacation from the cares and burdens of everyday life, please renew me physically, mentally, and spiritually. Help me to slow down and take delight in your magnificent creation and in all those I’ll share this time with. Help me to embrace this period of leisure and regain strength to continue my journey through life. By leaving my work behind for these days, may I focus my gaze on you, and reflect on what is important in life. Remind me to pray each day since I’m taking this vacation with you, not away from you. May you keep me safe in my travels and protect me from all harm. May I be revitalized and refreshed so I may return to carry out my daily responsibilities with joy and newfound enthusiasm. Amen.

Go to masstimes.org to find Mass times. Note: Beginning the week of July 9-10 St. Peter and Paul in Boonville will have a Mass change. Saturday evening Mass at 6:00 pm and Sunday Mass at 10:30 am.

JULY STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious God, You sent your Son to proclaim the Good News, inspire us in faith and show us the way to be good stewards of Your abundant gifts. In this month of July dedicated to the Most Precious Blood of Jesus, grant us the wisdom to recognize that through his gift of the Eucharist there is but one cup of covenant and communion with Christ and each other. Through the Eucharist, give us the courage to be good stewards of Christ’s presence to others in our words and our deeds. And through your Spirit teach us to live, no longer for ourselves, but in Christ Jesus who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, God forever and ever. Amen.
