A Message from Fr. Stephen W. Jones, Moderator of Stewardship

on Catholic Schools.

As we seek to implement the fullness of the stewardship way of life in our diocese, I am often asked why parishioners who don't want to come to Mass or enrich the parish with their talents can't just pay tuition to send their children to the parish school. It's a good question and one that strikes at the heart of reason why many of our parishes have schools in the first place. You see - unlike a private school - which is established for the sole purpose of education, a Catholic school is a ministry of the parish itself. Private schools charge tuition in return for the services it provides, namely an education. A Catholic school, however, has a much broader mission and vision. Its goals are the parish's goals, namely, to strengthen the parish community, form faithful Christians, proclaim the presence of the Kingdom of God in our midst, and provide a solid education. All of this is summed up in the definition of Christian stewardship we are adopting in our diocese. Stewardship is "The grateful response of a Christian disciple who recognizes and receives God's gifts and shares those gifts out of love of God and neighbor." The job of a Catholic school is to help parents, who are the primary educators of their children, accomplish the task of raising faithful disciples and stewards. This is why the parish funds the ministry of the school and sponsors the children of families who are striving to live as active stewards for enrollment in it. To charge tuition to Catholic families would undermine the link which exists between the parish and the school, in effect turning the school into something it is not - a private school. It is the vision of the Diocese of Jefferson City that Catholic school education be accessible to all Catholic families. However, all our Catholic families do have a choice before them: will they strive to live as active stewards in their parish? Will they commit to attending Mass on weekends and Holy Days? Will they pledge and stay current on a commitment of time and treasure to support the work of the parish? Every single Catholic person in our diocese is being called to live as an active steward. We are asking nothing more of families who want to enroll their child in the parish school than of anyone else. We are asking all parishioners to live as active stewards.

Thank you to all our Parishioners for your generous support of our Catholic School!!
