Mission Statement – St. Joseph Catholic Church seeks to be an actively visible faith community that works to make disciples of Jesus Christ through our hospitality, education, sacraments, & service.

Sacrament of Anointing of the Sick: If you know of anyone needing the Sacrament of the Anointing of the Sick or Last Rites, please let Father know. If it is an emergency, please call the office phone or send Father an email. If a family member is in a neighboring hospital (Columbia, etc.) and it is an emergency, please let your doctor or nurse know to contact a Priest – they have priests on-call every day of the week at the larger hospitals. If it is not an emergency but you'd like Father to visit in the hospital, please talk to him to arrange a time for a visit.

Sacraments of Baptism or Marriage: a preparation process is required before either of these Sacraments is celebrated. Please contact Father or Parish Secretary at least 6 months before a wedding is planned or as soon as the pregnancy is known so that proper arrangements may be made for the spiritual preparations.

Not only that, but we even boast of our afflictions, knowing that affliction produces endurance, and endurance, proven character, and proven character, hope, and hope does not disappoint, because the love of God has been poured out into our hearts through the holy Spirit that has been given to us.

Romans 5:3-5

In our own afflictions, we are invited to share in the sufferings of Christ and in doing so, our pain becomes redemptive. This builds endurance, forms a proven character and leads us to a hope that does not disappoint — a hope firmly rooted in the unshakable love of God poured into our hearts through the Holy Spirit.

PENTECOST STEWARDSHIP PRAYER

Gracious and loving God, The Eucharist leads us into a deeper encounter with Your Son, Jesus Christ; Who through the Mystery of His Body and Blood reveals Your active presence in each moment of our lives. May the gift of the Eucharist transform us and give us new meaning. May it make us good stewards of Your abundant blessings and open our hearts to the needs of our Church and to the hunger in the world. Nourish our family of faith; give us wisdom and compassion; and by the power of Your Spirit, show us how to walk in the footsteps of Jesus as we journey together to the peace and joy of Your Divine Love.

We ask this through Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Vocations

DIOCESE OF JC VOCATIONS PRAYER – Almighty Father, You have created us for some definite purpose. Grant us the grace to know the path You have planned for us in this life and to respond with a generous “Yes.” Make our diocese, parishes, homes and hearts fruitful ground for Your gift of vocations. May our young people respond to Your call with courage and zeal. Stir among our men a desire and the strength to be good and holy priests. Bless us with consecrated religious and faithful husbands and wives, who are a sign of Christ’s love for His Church. We

“I Go to Mass, but it Feels Like Nothing Changes” – Fr. Mike Schmitz →

CORPUS CHRISTI
SUNDAY JUNE 22nd

EUCCHARISTIC PROCESSION
after 10am Glasgow Mass

Next Sunday, is the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. Originally called Corpus Christi [the Body of Christ], the solemnity had its origins in 13th-century France. The feast was extended to the universal Church by Pope Urban IV in 1264. Pope Clement V (d. 1314) and Pope John XXII (d. 1334) formalized the celebrations further. The Church has a rich tradition of holding eucharistic processions on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. The procession is one method for venerating the Blessed Sacrament. It is also an act of public witness – a wonderful opportunity for evangelization with those who may not yet know Jesus or understand our faith.

We are planning on having a Eucharistic Procession this year immediately following the 10:00 AM Mass. Please join us if you can!

STEWARDSHIP AND LEISURE TIME – A REFLECTION

Maybe we are not in a position to take too much time off, but all of us can resonate with the need to really “get away” from work or the daily grind or the constant demands of social media. Even the Gospels suggest that good stewardship of our bodies, minds and souls obliges us to get away on a regular basis (see Luke 5:16).

As Christian stewards, we aren’t just encouraged, but obligated to consider how we approach our stewardship of leisure time. Stewards are aware of their need to be busy doing God’s work, but often forget that down time is equally important to spiritual growth. Leisure time, whether it’s our evenings, our weekends, or our vacation, provides spiritual, physical, mental, and emotional recharging. Leisure is necessary for human wholeness. Leisure reconnects us to the wider mysteries of our world and our God. It helps us daydream, imagine, pray. It refreshes our spirit.

Today, connectivity has become almost an obsession. People check their emails, their messages, and calls with alarming repetitiveness. Accidents, both pedestrian and automobile, happen because people can’t put down their phones. Employers expect their workers to be available for evening emails. The lines between work and free time increasingly blur, as do the lines between solitude and always being present “online.” We can’t imagine putting aside screens for a two-week vacation. But we must give ourselves time to renew and recharge, not just two weeks of the year, but each day and each week.

This summer season offers an opportunity to reconnect with the rhythms of God and nature. We need to take time off from screens and phones, and practice giving undivided attention to the things before us. When we pray, we commit time and silence. When we enjoy time with our friends and family, we practice being totally present. When we sit on the patio or at the beach, we give ourselves wholly to the wind or the waves. Be a good steward of your body, mind, and soul. Don’t overschedule your time off. Listen to the quiet whisper of God encouraging you to relax.
